

Catapult Venture Managers Limited and Carbon Trust Investments have invested £1m each into Nottingham based 4energy

4energy's innovative cooling systems have been proven to reduce the energy used to regulate the temperature of critical industrial electronic equipment by up to 90% and have been installed by companies such as Vodafone, EDF Energy and Scottish Power Energy Networks.

The company will use the funding to roll-out global trials of its telecommunication base station cooling technology, extend its distribution network and continue investment in cooling breakthroughs in significant areas such as data centres.

Catapult provides equity capital of between £200k and £2m for growing businesses
