

Catapult Venture Managers has invested a further £300k into Monica Healthcare Limited, increasing Catapult's total investment in the company to £1m

The further investment was made as part of a £1.1m funding round, alongside PUK Ventures and the University of Nottingham.

Monica has developed a miniature, wireless technology that can monitor the wellbeing of a mother and her unborn baby. The device has received CE marking and is available throughout Europe. This funding round will support further regulatory approvals, continued rollout and further development.

Catapult provides equity capital of between £200k and £2m for growing businesses
