

Catapult Venture Managers has completed an investment into Cambridge based Zinwave Holdings Ltd, alongside existing investors Scottish Equity Partners, Atlas Venture and SEB Venture Capital.

Zinwave provides 'in-building wireless active wideband systems'. Using its unique wideband technology, Zinwave provides a single system solution for all wireless services, allowing guaranteed unified indoor coverage at lower capital expenditure and running costs. The company has generated impressive sales traction, with a reference base of prestigious sites and a number of newly secured sales channels. This funding round is to support manufacturing expansion and further US and Asian sales growth.

Catapult provides equity capital of between £200k and £2m for growing businesses
